Accessibility Statement for Staple Parish Council Website

This accessibility statement applies to the Staple Parish Council website.

This website is run by Staple Parish Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader

We have also tried to make the website text as simple as possible to understand.

How accessible this website is

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible.

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons:

Some PDF and Word documents may not be fully accessible to screen reader software. This includes historical documents such as meeting minutes and agendas.

Third-party content, such as embedded Google services (e.g. calendars), may not fully meet accessibility requirements and is outside the Council's control.

Disproportionate burden

The Council has made no claims of disproportionate burden at this time.

Content not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

Some documents published before 23 September 2018 are exempt from the accessibility regulations.

Third-party content that is not funded, developed or controlled by the Council is also exempt.

Feedback and contact information

If you need information on this website in a different format, such as accessible PDF, large print, easy read, audio recording or braille, please contact:

Clerk to Staple Parish Council
Email: clerk@stapleparishcouncil.co.uk

We will consider your request and aim to respond within 15 working days.

Reporting accessibility problems

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems not listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, please contact the Clerk using the details above.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

If you are not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Staple Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA standard due to the non-accessible content listed above.

What we are doing to improve accessibility

The Council is reviewing its website content and working to improve accessibility where possible, including ensuring that new documents meet accessibility standards.

Preparation of this accessibility statement

This statement was prepared on 28th April 2026.
